

OUR STORY

Sometimes you must do it SCARED!

Born out of the vision of Dreunna Holland, Co-Owner of Dynamic Xplosion Cheer (DXC), Black Culture Cheer and Dance Competition is a cheerleading and dance competition featuring predominately black programs from across the NATION showcasing their talent!

According to the American Psychology Association, "Despite recent efforts to improve mental health services for African Americans and other minority groups, barriers remain regarding access to and quality of care. The barriers include: stigma associated with mental illness, distrust of the health care system, lack of providers from diverse racial/ethnic backgrounds, lack of culturally competent providers and lack of insurance".

BCCD will be a powerful, impactful and life- changing competition that celebrates the amazing talent we have in our culture and address the mental health issues (lack of resources, lack of access to mental health care, and undiagnosed mental illnesses) amongst the African American/Black Community.

Providing mental health resources, scholarships for Seniors via an Essay Contest, Affirmation Challenges amongst the athletes and a positive environment for everyone and anyone that associates with Black Culture (not limited to race) is the goal of this event.

THE VENUE

The Alfred Lawson Jr. Multipurpose Center and Teaching Gymnasium is a 9,639-seat multi-purpose arena in Tallahassee, Florida on the Campus of Florida A&M University. It was built in 2009 and it is home to the Florida A&M men's and women's basketball teams and women's volleyball team.

At this venue, Mental Health Providers will be setup around the area to provide free consultation for parents, athletes, coaches, and supporters along with your Business Name/Logo.

WHY SPONSOR

Everyone deserves a chance at life, so why not help them receive it. The Black Culture Cheer and Dance Competition goal is to bring Mental Health Awareness to the minority community that receives Mental Health Care the least. You will be supporting the fastest growing sport in the United States. We are hosting the inaugural Black Culture Cheer & Dance Competition in Tallahassee, FL on March 18, 2023 and your sponsorship will ensure the success of the BCCD competition, scholarships for High School Seniors and long-term plans for Mental Health Care for Minorities in the Community.

BCCD seeks to provide a unique perspective on cheerleading and dance, and we want to give the world an inside look at life from the lens of an athlete emerged in Black Culture.

This competition will not isolate any race or color, instead it is uplifting the Black Culture and helping others understand how GREAT WE ARE in everything we do, because we are Dynamic!
